THE NEW ORGANISM

[From the Boston Traveller.]

In the competitive examination of candidates or organs honors in the new department towards the supremacy of the ex Confederacy the Journal and the Advertiser have begun neck and neck. Yesterday the Advertiser made a spurt which left sounded the National Republican platform of last year (repeated in the Iowa platform) as a disapproval of the policy, and it was entitled to the heat. But that did not end the contest for first in the day. The Journal, determined to secure the organ stops at all hazard, forced the pace recklessly run the whole competition. For more than two generations, this supple organ, on which its interested manipulators played to distract the people, but the ever the spell of Southern Democracy was broken. Only a few disorganized fragments of the Democratic party remained, and these, with the aid of the Republican party, succeeded in electing Governor Talbot. Then the work of abolishing human bondage was entirely accomplished, the cotton and rice plantations were divided, the organ of slavery was broken, and the people of the South, relieved from the incubus of the past, began to develop their resources and to enjoy the blessings of freedom. Then the Democratic party, which had been the champion of human bondage, was left without a single organ in the South, and the Democratic party of the North was left without a single principle on which to appeal to the people. Massachusetts will be the only Democratic State.

If the organ of the people should say that the only foundation for the result of the vote was the passage of the third resolution of the Cincinnati platform of last year, they would have to explain why it should be a positive approval of the policy, and why not the Republican resolution, which says that the latter resolution is adopted as the true interpretation of the Democratic platform. In order to reconcile the two statements, the organ would have to say that the people voted for the Democratic party because they approved of the Republican platform. This is clearly not the case, but they may announce that the President has proved it to the platform on which he was elected. This is clearly not the case, but they may announce that the President has proved it to the platform on which he was elected. This is clearly not the case, but they may announce that the President has proved it to the platform on which he was elected.

ONE STAUNCH PAPER IN BOSTON

It is a source of congratulation to the people of this State that while the vote on the Republican resolution was not as large as it should have been, a praise covering the whole press of the city was not entirely withheld. The Boston Herald has a right to claim that it has done its duty, and it has done it well. It has been a long and hard struggle for it to contend with the most powerful and influential newspapers in the city, but it has done so with a courage and a determination that deserves the highest praise. The Herald has set the Republican party an example of fidelity to principle and to the people which it would be well for the party to follow. The Herald has shown that it is possible to maintain a high standard of journalism in Boston, and that it is possible to maintain a high standard of journalism in Boston, and that it is possible to maintain a high standard of journalism in Boston.

The Woodstock Celebration.

A NOTABLE OCCASION.

MASTERLY SPEECHES BY SENATOR BLAINE AND GOV. CHAMBERLAIN.

The Latter Powerfully Arraigns the Administration.

MR. BLAINE SOUNDS AN ALARM

The great Union Reunion of Friday and Saturday last, organized by Henry C. Bowen on the occasion of his presenting Ulysses S. Grant to the town of Woodstock, Conn., where it proved of even more interest than had been anticipated. The celebration was on a grand scale, and the literary programme included addresses by Hon. J. L. Watt, Prof. Northrop, Mr. Bulkley, Rev. Dr. Cuyler, poems by Oliver W. Holmes and Mary Clemmer, and a public reception on the evening of the 4th. The address was by Hon. James G. Blaine, and was listened to by a vast audience. The following is a brief report of the address:

The Senator began by saying that it was a great pleasure to meet the people of the State of Connecticut, and to see the old State so prosperous and so happy. He said that he had been asked to speak on the subject of the Constitution, and that he would do so. He said that the Constitution was the work of the people, and that it was the duty of the people to maintain it. He said that the Constitution was the work of the people, and that it was the duty of the people to maintain it. He said that the Constitution was the work of the people, and that it was the duty of the people to maintain it.

FRANK M. ROWE,

HARRISON'S PERISTALTIC LOZENGES.

A POSITIVE CURE FOR

Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Piles,

Oppression after Eating, Headache, Dizziness,

For thirty years these Lozenges have retained the confidence of the Medical Profession and the public generally, in spite of all competitors or imitators. They are the most powerful remedy for HABITUAL COSTIVENESS and all its results viz: Piles, Indigestion, Headache, Dizziness, Sour Stomach, Offensive Breath, Heartburn, Flatulence, Bad Taste in the mouth, Torpid Liver, &c., &c.

Females who cannot endure strong purgatives find these Lozenges admirably suited to their many complaints incident to their sex, by restoring nature and preventing per odical pains and disorders. They are mild but the thing for children suffering with worms, being at the same time agreeable to take as the most pleasant confection. Travellers find the Lozenges just what they need as they are so compact and inodorous that they may be carried in the vest pocket, and as an aperient or laxative they are unequalled.

Testimony of a Boston Merchant.

Boston, May 10, 1875.

This certifies that I have used Dr. Harrison's Peristaltic Lozenges, and after suffering a long time with the Piles I experimented an entire box, and recommend their use to any afflicted in the same way, without reserve, as especially if at tended with any constipation.

H. B. FOLGER

From the General Ticket Agent of Montreal and Lake Champlain Railroad.

Montreal, March 20th, 1877

Messrs. B. B. Stevens & Co. Gents—The business of the Lozenges has increased very much. I am obliged to order a large supply. Every closely to exhaust the present one. Every sequence been much troubled with pain in the stomach. I have found your Lozenges just what I want, a strong purgative, but an efficient one.

Price, 50 and 75 cents per box. For sale by all Druggists, and will be sent free by mail on receipt of price.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT!

For Saturday Afternoon and Evening,

JULY 7TH, 1877.

THE GREAT LONDON SHOW Variety Entertainment, to which the newspapers of all the large cities have been so complimentary, in proclaiming the most enjoyable amusement ever given under canvas, is here "billed" to do their level best in this the HOME of their talented Leader, Mr. Lewis H. Davis, who stands to-day without even a rival, as the Champion Delineator of Ethiopian Character, and together with his partner, Wm. Chase, the great Tambourinist, compose the most laughable pair on the American Stage.

Read, and note the array of talent introduced at this Exhibition, which will commence immediately after Professor SILL concludes his performance in the Bengal Tiger cage, and in the same ring, upon a large Stage specially designed for this entertainment.

All those of the audience who desire to participate in this rich treat, can do so without leaving their seats.

PROGRAMME--Part First.

FEMALE MINSTRELS.--Bones, Lew Davis. Interlocutor, Tommy Adams. Tambo., Wm. Chace.

Part Second.--Olio.

The Child Wonder, the fascinating little Queen of Song, BERTIE RINEHART.

JOHNNY PATTERSON, the Great, as the Irish Emigrant.

CARRIE AUSTIN, the Dead Shot, who will perform some of the following feats:

She will cut an apple on the head of Bob Ellis as he runs across the stage. Shoot an apple off the head of Bob Ellis as he runs towards him. Shoot eight balls from a rifle in one minute. Shoot eight balls from a rifle in one minute. Shoot eight balls from a rifle in one minute.

The celebrated Song and Dance artists, CHACE and DAVIS, in their Original Specialties.

MISS LILLIAN STEINWAY, in her Artistic Jig.

MR. TOMMY ADAMS, as Simple Simon, the greatest of Male Impersonators.

LITTLE BERTIL RINEHART, in swell Songs of the day.

"Down where the Pansies Grow," by the Empress of Song and Dance, Miss CARRIE BOSHELL.

CHACE and DAVIS, in their own version of "You Don't Say So."

The Teutonic Comedian, TOMMY ADAMS, in Songs and Dances.

THE AUSTINS, in their unapproachable Zouave Drill, in which they have no celebrated boxing, people balancing all the crowned heads of Europe, as well as their extraordinary Drill in Hamlet's Dumpty and proved the greatest act ever introduced. Prof. Bryant considers this act of the most exciting and difficult to perform ever introduced in the world.

In Biddeford

At the Firemen's Muster several hand engines competed. Volunteer 1, of Portsmouth took the first prize for first-class machines, playing 194 feet 2 inches, Triumph [illegible] of Fenwick took the first prize for second class engines, playing 191 feet [illegible] inches. [illegible] of the ring just as the steamers were preparing to play prevented the trial of steam engines. There were several thousand visitors here, though not half as many as was expected, and everything passed off quietly.

FROM CALAIS

Killed

CALAIS, July 5. William Henry Noble, of Milltown, while intoxicated and asleep on the track was run over yesterday by an engine on the St. Croix and Penobscot Railroad cutting off both legs. He died this afternoon.

FROM FARMINGTON

Normal School Exercises

FARMINGTON, July 5. At the Normal School the forenoon was devoted to the examination of classes. The Governor, Council, Trustees and a large number of others were present. In the afternoon the exercises in teaching were given by the graduates—Mellie A. [illegible] P. Carter, [illegible] Hewey, Dora [illegible] Sarah A. Smith, [illegible] Everett, [illegible] Dow, Mary I. Thayer, [illegible] Thomas, Winnie B. Thorndike, Nellie E. Townsend, Emma S. Wyman, [illegible] W. Charley, Frank F. Perham. [illegible] o'clock this evening an address was delivered by A. D. Mayo, D. D., conferring diplomas. The attendance during the [illegible] was large. The day was charming and [illegible] interest in the school was manifest.

FROM BIDDEFORD

Fires

BIDDEFORD, July 5. The dwelling of Edwin H. Thompson, corner of High and [illegible] streets, was nearly ruined by fire yesterday. Insured for $1,000 in the Girard, furniture partially insured $600 in the [illegible] Company. The dwelling of [illegible] B. Dillon adjoining was damaged and the inmates badly smashed and injured by water. Insured in the Ætna and Citizens [illegible] $2,700.

DROWNED

CAMDEN, June 5. Alphonzo Thayer and William Perry, young men of Rochester, were drowned this forenoon in Penobscot bay while catching a sword fish with Capt. Thurston of the schooner Joe Carleton, [illegible] fish fouling with the boat and upsetting [illegible]. The bodies have not been recovered.

BATH, June 5. Willie D[illegible], son of Thomas McLaughlin, aged 4 years, fell into the river to-day and was drowned.

BIDDEFORD, July 5. Willie Fellows, 8 years old, son of Alexander Fellows, was drowned near the river steam mill this afternoon.

FROM PORTLAND.

Damaged by Fire—The Carey Concert

PORTLAND, July 5. The old Cross house, on the corner of Middle and India streets, owned by Reuben Higgins, was slightly damaged by fire last night. Incendiary.

The Carey concert netted $1000 for the St. John sufferers and the total raised here by cash and supplies now exceed $15,000.

DOMESTIC NEWS.

THE INDIANS

PORTLAND, Oregon, July 5. The following despatch, just received from Lewiston, under date of July 2d: A courier, just in front Tama, says Col. Whipple and his command had an engagement with the Looking Glass band on the Clear Water today. Four Indians were killed and left on the field and many others wounded. The squaws and children took to the river and several were drowned. The fighting was still going on when the courier left. The Looking Glass Band is estimated at about 400 [illegible].

At 3 o'clock A. M. a courier arrived, having left General Howard's camp on the 29th. The troops had made a crossing that day, and the scouts, who had been out in the hills, found stock, but no Indians. The latter are believed to have gone toward the mouth of Salmon River, making for Gray's crossing on the Salmon, thence crossing the Snake river at the mouth of the Granderonde. Despatches were forwarded to Walla Walla to be telegraphed so as to apprise persons in the Granderonde and Walla Walla valleys that they may be on the lookout.

A private letter states that the body of Lieut. Theller has been found and several other bodies. Near by were a great number of empty cartridges, which gave proof that they sold their lives dearly.

LOUISIANA.

The Returning Board.

NEW YORK, July 5. A New Orleans special to the World says there is no doubt the new Grand Jury will indict the members of the Returning Board for perjury and forgery, the evidence being clear. Wells says the indictments will be in violation of last spring's compromises and he and Anderson are making arrangements to go to Washington to solicit the interposition of Hayes.

CONDENSED DESPATCHES

There were twenty one slight accidents in New York Wednesday, from fireworks and fifteen small fires, the loss aggregating $2,000.

Wednesday, the steam tannery with buildings attached, stock, etc., at Wolfboro, N. H., were burned. Loss $23,000.

The observance of the Fourth in Rhode Island was very quiet.

A fire at Hoboken, N. J., Wednesday, destroyed $25,000 worth of property.

By the premature discharge of a cannon at Kingston Hill, R. I., Wednesday, one man was killed and four others badly injured.

John [illegible] the [illegible] is seriously ill at Baltimore.

A fire at Chester, N. Y., yesterday, caused a loss of $61,000.

[illegible] Consul Wilson at [illegible] burg, Germany, to the State Department relative to the rinderpest states that the infection is not destroyed by the hides of the animals being salted, dried or frozen, and will propagate itself to sheep, goats, hogs, cats, fowl, pigeons, [illegible] wool, leather, etc., and is easily propagated from woolen clothing, showing it to be a virulent poison and affects for a very long time. The object being to fear for export of [illegible] from German ports to the United States or any country of infected articles or any of our [illegible].

During the absence of the superintendent of the New Hampshire State Reform School Wednesday afternoon several boys made a desperate assault upon the overseer, disarmed him, took the keys and escaped. All but one were recaptured.

The Mayor of Portsmouth, England, is [illegible] about any [illegible] Portsmouth, N. H., who [illegible] to visit England.

The long neglected grave of Samuel Meredith, the first Treasurer of the United States, is about to be marked by a plain substantial monument at Pleasant Mount, Pa.

The Governor has appointed Hon. Franklin J. Carney of Newcastle a trustee of the Reform School.

The Brooklyn Eagle says James Gordon Bennett is expected [illegible] [illegible] from Havre.

Movements About Sistova and Rustchuk

NEW YORK, June [illegible]. Cable specials state that the fighting of the Turks and Russians after landing last Sunday near Sistova, was very desperate and his [illegible] but [illegible] since Sunday night are not definitely known. The latest news at Rustchuk reports a heavy fusilade at Aschaga Monastir, but the bulk of the Russian army is still near Sistova. It is stated that the original plan of the Russians to cross the Danube both at Sistova and Turtukai was frustrated by the failure at Turtukai and the inaction of the Russian army in Bulgaria is thus explained. The Government houses at Rustchuk were burned by the bombardment. There are only three Europeans left, but the garrison have gone.

Russia, England and Austria

A London special says Earl Derby distinctly informed the Russian Ambassador in London (Schouvaloff) that Great Britain will not allow the Russian occupation of Constantinople.

The Russian Golos (newspaper) says if England violates the neutrality Russia will undoubtedly occupy Egypt and next Constantinople. It is reported that Austria has announced that in certain eventualities she will act with England. Russia is endeavoring to prevent the occurrence of the eventualities. The recent proclamation of the Czar to the Bulgarians has caused serious dissensions in the Austrian Cabinet, and the firing of Consulates at Rustchuk has caused a distrust of the faith of Russia. The Austrian Minister Count Andrassy, is preparing a protest against both of these acts of Russia. It is stated that the Russians are to take Kars and heavy reinforcements are urged forward.

A Bucharest despatch says a great battle is impending at Sistova and the loss on both sides the past few days very severe. The Turks are attempting to cut the Russians from the river Danube to separate them from their base of operations.

A Heavy Strike

LONDON, June 5. The Times says if the Russians had captured Kars and Batoum they would have been strongly tempted to offer easy terms of peace, but now they have been so far baffled that they must strike with all their might in Europe and everything tends to show that they intend to strike very hard indeed.

Preparing to Flee

BUCHAREST, July 5. It is said that the Mussulmans are preparing to flee from the scene of last year's atrocities in Bulgaria fearing the vengeance of the Russians and Bulgarians.

A Serious Battle

NEW YORK, July 5. Kiernan's telegram from Vienna says a serious fight around Batoum resulted in the retreat of the Russians, thus uncovering the Russian besieging army before Kars. The Turkish losses were so heavy that they could not follow up their victory.

A Russian Report

ST. PETERSBURG, July 5. The Russians continue their forward marching in Bulgaria, but have not occupied Tirnova. In official quarters the participation of Servia in the war will be considered inopportune and it is not believed to be contemplated. No diplomatic explanations have been furnished by Russia regarding the Czar's proclamation to the Bulgarians nor has any been demanded.

Montenegro

At the termination of recent successful campaign against Montenegro, it was asserted from Constantinople that a Turkish Governor will be appointed and the country reduced to the position of a Turkish Province, also that Suleiman and Saib Pasha are about to march upon Cettinje without any further fighting. To account for the change in Turkish plans it is announced that Mehemet Ali has been appointed Commander of the army in Thessaly and Suleiman Pasha recalled to Constantinople, probably with his army. These measures give point to reports recently current that Austria and probably other powers have brought the pressure at Constantinople to save Montenegro from being crushed, and also with the view of taking away from Servia on pretext for joining in the hostilities against Turkey.

WAR REPORTS AND RUMORS.

The Turkish War Office reports that the Czar has formally proclaimed the independence of Bulgaria.

A decree is promulgated in Constantinople authorizing the issue of milliards piastres, paper money, redeemable in 20 years at the rate of fifty millions annually.

An official despatch announces that Dobrudscha is completely cleared of Turks as far as Trajan's wall.

The Russians continue to cross the Danube uninterruptedly day and night.

It is rumored that the first act of the Skuptschina will be the declaration of Servian independence.

A cable special says the position of the Russian army on the Danube at Simnitza is considered critical.

GENERAL GRANT

Continuation of His Tour

MONTREAL, July 5. A London despatch says that General Grant leaves for Ostend to-morrow, receiving an address of welcome at Falk tone en route. He will remain to-day at Brussells, thence to Cologne, up the Rhine to Frankfort on the Main, where a public reception will be given. He returns to London the last week in August after visiting Denmark and Sweden. Gen. Badeau accompanies him. He avoids France it is said, on account of political difficulties and possible unpleasant complications.

ST. JOHN

Aid from England

TORONTO, July 5th. A cable despatch says: Yesterday an influential deputation including Sir John Rose, Messrs. Hughes, Morley, Coperlake, Stewart and others, visited the Lord Mayor of London and drew his attention to the urgent response to his appeal for aid for the sufferers by the St. John fire and requested him to convene a public meeting of citizens to display their sympathy and benevolence for the [illegible]. [illegible] addressed Mayor Reilly consented to hold a meeting immediately. Earl Carnarvon and Lord Kimberly will attend. The amount thus far collected are as follows: London £1000, Liverpool £2000, [illegible] £[illegible]. The money will be remitted to St. John this week.

INDIA

The Famine Districts

LONDON, June 5. A despatch to the Times from Calcutta says the accounts from the Bombay famine districts are daily growing better. Rain is plentiful and the sowing of crops is [illegible]. The position in Madras is still very grave. Over a million persons are on the relief works or gratuitous relief.

The stereopticon was placed in the centre of the gallery at the rear of the hall and the pictures reflected on a large canvas over the stage. Mr. Sands gave a large number of views of the scenery along the line of the Portland and Ogdensburg railroad, also views of all the hotels on or about the mountains. He afterwards showed a variety of views, among which was one very pretty representation of "Rock of Ages" and the audience united in singing a verse of the hymn of that name while the picture was being shown on the canvass. A number of humorous views were also given which created great laughter.

FAMILY REUNION. A family reunion of the descendants of Mr. Levi Page, one of the first settlers of Brownville, was held at that place July 4th. The family was represented by fifty three in number. After an interchange of friendly greeting one to another at the house of Mr. G. I. Hamlin, all repaired to a grove near the residence of A. H. Merrill, Esq., where a table was spread and bountifully supplied with all the good things to tempt the appetite and tastefully arranged to please the eye. A blessing was invoked by Deacon Chase Page, when all fell to and partook of the repast with evident relish. The afternoon was spent in swinging, playing croquet and other amusements suited to the company present. On separating at evening all agreed that it had been a pleasant gathering and that the family tie had been strengthened.

GREAT LONDON SHOW TO-MORROW. This magnificent establishment, with its brilliant retinue of attractions, will give two full exhibitions here to-morrow (Saturday), the first at 2 and the last at 7.30 P. M. The press everywhere pronounce it unequaled, and say it fulfills all it promises. Among other good things the Boston Advertiser says of it:

To say that the show is good as circuses go is hardly sufficient praise, for nothing is badly done, many acts are surprisingly well performed, and—the management will thank us for giving this assurance—nothing that is promised is omitted, if we except the boy gymnasts, who are allowed a vacation by legislative enactment. Ellington, exhibited by R. H. Dockrill, is the most finely trained horse that has ever been exhibited here, and Mr. Dockrill's riding and vaulting is remarkable, if not wonderful. Mlle. Dockrill is also a graceful and daring rider. Five performing elephants are brought into the ring and exhibit their intelligence in many ways, and actually form the pyramid as represented on the bills. There are three or four clowns, but chief among them is John Patterson, an Irishman, who makes no effort to conceal his nativity, and his drollery is rich and delicious. The concluding feature of the performance is the introduction of a den of Bengal tigers, which is entered by Professor Still, who seems to have perfect control of the savage beasts, but the exhibition is nerve-shaking to sensitive people. The gymnasts, tumblers, slack-wire and trapeze performers, and other specialty artists, are all deserving of praise for their proficiency. In connection with the equestrian acts one thing should be noted, and that is that all the riding is upon the bare backs of the horses, not a pad is seen during the entertainment. The menagerie is unusually large and interesting, and the animals are all in fine condition. The band is a remarkably good one, and its music forms a very agreeable part of the entertainment. The show is well managed in all its details, and its patrons cannot fail to be pleased. The tent was full last night and is sure to be crowded at the performances to come.

PITTSFIELD ITEMS. On Monday evening last the following officers of Phien[illegible] Lodge, No. 61, I. O. O. F., of Pittsfield, were publicly installed at Grange Hall: Theodore Gerrish, N. G.; Kingsbury Bachelder, V. G.; Samuel C. Pratt, Secretary; James B. Gordon, Treasurer; G. J. Pendexter, Marshal; I. C. Bryant, Con. The officers of the Grand Lodge were present to officiate. Short speeches were made by W. W. Castle, D. D. G. M., and Dr. Mason of Washington, D. C., after which the audience repaired to the hall over G. J. Pendexter's for refreshment.

—The different Sabbath schools of the [illegible] celebrated the Fourth according to arrangements. They repaired to the Advents' campmeeting ground where, w[illegible] croquet, a picnic, etc., occupied the day and all [illegible] away feeling that it had been an enjoyable occasion. —July 4th the Young Americus of this place played a match game of base ball with the Pis[illegible] of Newport on the grounds of the [illegible] with the following result: Young Americus, 28; P[illegible] 13.

THE JAMESON'S EXCURSION. At about half past one last Tuesday afternoon the Jameson Guards, Lieut. Davis commander, formed in their armory, and escorted by the Bangor Band and honorary staff, Gen. Daniel White, Capt. Hinckley of Oldtown, Capt. Dennett and Lieut. Dodge, marched to the steamboat wharf where they embarked on the City of Richmond for Portland. After a most enjoyable sail down the river, the party reached Portland at about two o'clock on the morning of the fourth. At [illegible] they took the train and arrived at Biddeford at [illegible] where they formed into line and marched to the Biddeford Light Infantry armory. The Jamesons held the right in the grand procession which was formed at about ten o'clock in the morning. During the day they tendered a serenade to His Honor Mayor P[illegible], who responded in a few remarks very complimentary to the Guard. After having spent a [illegible] they took the cars for Portland [illegible] in the evening where they again embarked on the steamer and arrived in the city at [illegible] quarter past [illegible] yesterday afternoon.

THE CLUBBING CASE

Hearing Before the Mayor

A complaint having been lodged with the Mayor charging that officer Weymouth had used unnecessary violence and even brutality in his treatment of an intoxicated Indian on Exchange street, Tuesday, cutting his head with repeated blows of a "billy," until the man's head was covered with blood, a hearing was called before the Mayor at the Aldermen's room yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The witnesses in support of the complaint were first called, the majority being citizens doing business on the west side of Exchange street. Alton Burpee, J. W. Milliken, Philo A. Strickland, Fred H. Strickland and Moses [illegible] Hastings gave testimony substantially alike, that they saw Weymouth taking the man toward the depot, that he seemed unwilling to go, but was making no hostile demonstration toward the officer, that Weymouth asked for some one to take hold of the man, that when opposite Pullen's clothing store quite a crowd had collected, that at this time they saw the "billy" raised and brought down on the man's head three times, and afterwards saw the man bleeding. Mr. Sweet said that he heard Weymouth call for a man to take the man and saw him strike three times with the billy, when he told the officer he thought it was unnecessary to strike him. [illegible] that was [illegible] [illegible] told [illegible] the [illegible] for eight years, never had seen him break the [illegible] or any disturbance.

On the other side officer Weymouth and others testified their version. Mr. W[illegible] [illegible] to him and told him the Indian had taken some lemons from Mann's saloon and would not pay and he had better arrest him. He tried to lead the Indian to the cars to send him off, but he resisted going. A crowd collected and he called for assistance. No one was offered and he told the man that if he did not come along with him to the station house he should have to use his billy. The man struggled violently and he struck him three times. He did what he thought his duty.

An Indian who said he was brother-in-law to the man arrested said he tried to get him home but he would not come. It was a strong hard man when drunk.

Henry Lord testified that the man resisted strenuously and that Weymouth told him he should have to use his billy. Heard the officer call for help, but no one went to his aid. The Indian was very much intoxicated and cross.

Chas. Mann, the keeper of a saloon on Exchange street, said the man was in there and bought three lemons and paid for them. Then took another and would not pay for it. When Mann demanded pay the Indian said if he had a knife he would kill him.

A Mr. Andrews saw the Indian making resistance and cross, but was not there when the blows were struck.

Thomas McAloon said he saw the Indian about an hour before the arrest and he was quarrelsome and wanted to get into a fight.

Two other witnesses, named O'Brien and Perry, testified that the Indian was resisting the officer.

At the close of the hearing His Honor the Mayor stated that in view of the evidence he should decide that the officer performed his duty.

We desire to say that our previous account of and comments on this case were based on statements then made, and that while we are always prompt and determined in sustaining our police officers in the exercise of justifiable force and in resorting even to extreme measures when necessary for self protection against assault, we do not wish to be understood as approving the indiscriminate or arbitrary use of the club. We can appreciate the fact that the police have to deal with a rough crowd about the lower end of Exchange st. and that officer Weymouth was once brutally disfigured by a ruffian in that locality. What we do not entirely understand is the necessity for the police to help Mr. Mann collect pay for his lemons, or whether the officer was placed in such bodily danger as rendered the resort to the club necessary in self defence. If the Indian was simply hanging back and not assaulting the officer we do not think such a case would warrant pounding over the head with so powerful a weapon as the "billy." It should be understood that the police are authorized to use all proper force in dealing with disorderly persons, but it is also desirable that the officers should understand that care and discretion must be used in resorting to the deadly weapons with which they are provided solely for serious emergencies.

From St. John

The following letter explains itself:

MAYOR'S OFFICE, St. John, June 30th, 18[illegible].

To John F. Crosby, City Treasurer, [illegible]

Please accept most sincere thanks for your kind attention to the children under Mr. Graham's charge from this city. The sympathy and very generous assistance in every form possible rendered to our distressed citizens by Bangor can never be forgotten by St. John. May your city never need a return of the favor is the prayer of

S. [illegible] EARLE,
Mayor of St. John.

FOURTH OF JULY.

Its Observance in Various Places

Our correspondents send us the following reports of the observance of our National Anniversary in different places:

THOMASTON

The celebration at Thomaston was very successfully carried out. It being the Centennial Celebration of that place no pains had been spared in making the arrangements. At an early hour people began to come in from the adjoining towns and before long the streets were thronged with people. The steamer C. B. Sanford left this city at 5 o'clock with about one hundred and sixty persons, and after a very pleasant sail down the river arrived in Rockland at about 10 o'clock, whence the party took the cars for Thomaston. The day was beautiful and the celebration passed off very smoothly. The program was as follows:

National salute at [illegible] noon and sunset. The grand procession formed on Gleason and Knox and Hyler streets at 9 A. M. and at 10 the column under the direction of Major J. H. Hewett, marched over the following route: Up Main to Wadsworth, down Wadsworth to Water, through Water to Knox, up Knox and Beech streets to the Grove where the following exercises took place: Address of welcome by A. Levensaler, Esq.; prayer by Rev. I. S. Kalloch; Reading the Declaration of Independence by O. G. Hall; after which Hon. F. B. Neally of this city delivered a very fine oration. At the close of the exercises a splendid collation was served to the invited guests in the pavilion.

At 2 P. M. [illegible] [illegible] West Main [illegible] and the [illegible] Silk Bren[illegible] [illegible] won by [illegible] of Warren and [illegible] Massasoit of Waldoboro.

At 4 P. M. a base ball match took place on the grounds [illegible] Knox [illegible] [illegible] Dirigo [illegible] Rockland [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] by the latter [illegible].

In the evening a grand display of fireworks took place on Hyler street [illegible] [illegible] crowd congregating in that vicinity to witness the display.

ORONO

The Fourth was very pleasantly celebrated at Orono. Col. J. W. Atwell acting as Chief Marshal of the day. At nine o'clock Monitor Engine Company formed with Upper Stillwater Band and marched over the bridge in front of the old Exchange, where they passed between Eagle and [illegible] [illegible] Companies and marched down to the Orono House and back, the other company [illegible] in and marched over the village. They turned down Pine street, crossed to Pleasant, up Mill to [illegible], through [illegible] street and over the river to [illegible]. [illegible] the trial of the engines occurred. Afterwards a fine dinner was given to the firemen and invited guests by the citizens of Orono in Monitor Engine Hall. Speeches were made by several gentlemen in pursuance of the Declaration of Independence read by Dr. E. A. Mayo. After dinner the tub race took place on the bridge, on [illegible] prize, one dollar. [illegible] tubs [illegible] were half hogsheads and were propelled with shingles. The prize was won by H. H. Watson. The rest of the afternoon was [illegible] up [illegible] batteries, bag sack and foot racing. In the evening there was a grand ball in the Town Hall at which there were about one hundred and fifty persons present. The music was fine and an elegant supper was served during the evening by the citizens and the occasion was enjoyed by all. The entire celebration passed off very satisfactorily and reflect much credit on the citizens.

BREWER

The Fourth was very pleasantly celebrated by the ladies of the M. E. church in Brewer, who provided a dinner and supper at the Town Hall, on a very liberal scale. Although there were many attractions abroad and friends gathered very largely and both young and old seemed to find it an occasion of great enjoyment. We were pleased to welcome among the guests members of the Congregational church with their pastor the Rev. Mr. Beckwith, who has recently come to reside in Brewer. Quite a variety of useful and ornamental articles were exhibited for sale which were very readily bought up during the afternoon. Our ladies have worked for this occasion with their usual zeal and industry, and well deserve the success which has crowned this effort. The President of the Circle, Mrs. A. Barstow, has shown herself fully equal to the position she occupies.

DEXTER

The celebration at Dexter opened with a salute and bell ringing at sunrise and a parade of Horribles at 8 o'clock. Quite a crowd were in attendance at the Pond at 9 o'clock to see the foot race. Fred Sawyer took the first prize, Charles Clukey second, and Will Curtis, third. At the park the running race, slow race and foot race, passed off well. The chasing of the greased pig caused some merriment but it was of short duration, George Brawn being the fellow to catch and hold it.

At 1 P. M., the $100 purse was trotted, for $50 for first, $25 for second, $15 for third and $10 for fourth.

The track was in excellent order and every one seemed well pleased with the good order and fairness that characterized every race.

One or two slight accidents happened during the day; but nothing of a serious nature. The dramatic entertainment was postponed, the scenery not being ready, which was a great disappointment to all concerned. At 9 P. M., we had a display of fire works.

CARROLL

Mr. Editor:—The celebration in Carroll was a very successful one and the people are justly proud of it. The parade of [illegible] in the morning was capital, equaling the more pretentious attempts so[illegible] [illegible] larger places. At [illegible] [illegible] people repaired to the grove where the exercises were opened with music, prayer by Rev. J. H. Bennett, reading of the Declaration of Independence by Hiram Stevens, Esq., oration by B. [illegible] Burr, Esq. of Bangor, concluding with dinner and toasts and responses. A game of base ball was played later in the afternoon between the Prentiss and Carroll nines, the former winning. To the Marshal of the day, Major [illegible] much credit is due. In the evening there was a dance [illegible] full floor until morning. The day was charming and altogether the celebration was one that will be long remembered by all [illegible] nothing occurring to mar the pleasure [illegible].

MILO

The Good Templars and Sabbath schools of Milo spent the Fourth very pleasantly in a grove about one mile from the village. A picnic dinner was furnished free to all after which the Declaration of Independence was read followed by the usual number of toasts and responses.

Pro Bono Publico.

Rheumatism and Neuralgia.

This remedy is the result of the research of one of the Proprietors, who has been a great sufferer for years and who had tried all the advertised remedies and skill of many physicians without relief. A radical cure was obtained and numerous similar cures effected among his friends and acquaintances without an exception, induced him to put it before the public. That it will cure the most severe cases of Rheumatism we have abundant testimony to show, which may be found in our circulars. All of which proof is bona fide and from those who have been benefited by its use.

Sold by all druggists, price one dollar per bottle. Liberal discount to the trade.

R. H. EDDY, Esq.—Dear Sir: You procured for me, in 1840, my first patent. Since then you have acted for and advised me in hundreds of cases, and procured many patents, reissues and extensions. I have occasionally employed the best agencies in New York, Philadelphia and Washington, but I still give you almost the whole of my business, in your line, and advise others to employ you. Yours truly, GEORGE DRAPER.

Boston, Jan. 1, 1877.

District Court of the United States. District of Maine.

In the matter of JOSEPH ISAACSON, Bankrupt, IN BANKRUPTCY.

This is to give notice that a Petition has been presented to the Court, this ... day of June, 1877, by Joseph Isaacson, of Rockland, a Bankrupt, praying that he may be decreed to have a full discharge from all his debts, provable under the Bankrupt Act, and upon reading said petition,

It is ordered by the Court that a hearing be had upon the same, on the first Monday of September, A. D. 1877, before the Court in Portland, in said District, at 10 o'clock A. M., and that notice thereof be published in the Bangor Daily Whig & Courier and the Rockland Gazette, newspapers printed in said District, once a week for three successive weeks, and once in the weekly Bangor Courier, the last publication to be thirty days at least before the day of hearing, and that all creditors who have proved their debts and other persons in interest, may appear at said time and place, and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of said Petition should not be granted.

WM. P. PREBLE,
Clerk of District Court for said District.

Notice of Assignee of His Appointment.

In the District Court of the United States, for the District of Maine. In the matter of Timothy G. Rich, Bankrupt, in Bankruptcy.

DISTRICT OF MAINE, ss. At Bangor, the 5th day of June, A. D. 1877. The undersigned hereby gives notice of his appointment as Assignee of Timothy G. Rich, of Bangor, in the County of Penobscot, and State of Maine, within said District, who has been adjudged a Bankrupt, upon his own petition, by the District Court of said District, filed May 7, A. D. 1877.

H. L. MITCHELL, Assignee.

Bangor, June 10, 1877.

Sheriff's Sale.

PENOBSCOT, ss. June 11th, A. D. 1877.

Taken on execution, and will be sold by Public Auction, on MONDAY, the twenty ... day of July, A. D. 1877, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, at my office in Bangor, in said Penobscot County, all the right which George V. Laws, of Bangor aforesaid, has, or had on the eighteenth day of October, A. D. 1876—the time when the same was attached on the original writ—to redeem the following described mortgaged real estate, with the buildings thereon, situate in Bangor, in said County of Penobscot, described as follows, to wit: Bounded by ... in the westerly line of Fern street, at the northeast corner of a lot of land now or formerly of R. G. Hinman; thence northerly on the line of said Fern street, sixty feet; thence westerly at right angles with said street, about one hundred and twenty three feet, to land formerly owned by Philip Coombs, thence southerly on said Coombs' land, to the northwest corner of said Hinman lot, thence easterly on the line of said Hinman lot, about one hundred and twenty-three feet to the point begun at, being the same premises conveyed to said George V. Laws by Daniel D. Norwood, by deed recorded in the Registry of Deeds for Penobscot County, Vol. 395, page 158, and the same is described in, and subject to a mortgage from said Laws to said Norwood given to secure the sum of Five Hundred Dollars and interest as therein set forth, as per deed recorded in the Registry aforesaid, Vol. 3.., page 160, to which Registry reference is made for further particulars.

G. B. BEAN, Deputy Sheriff.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES, FOR THE DISTRICT OF MAINE. In the matter of Warren A. Cummings, Bankrupt.

Notice is hereby given that the third general meeting of creditors of said Bankrupt, will be held before Charles Hamlin, Register, at the Bankrupt Court Room, in Bangor, on the 4th day of September, 1877, at 11 o'clock A. M., for the purpose named in section 5093 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, title Bankruptcy.

ST. NICHOLAS.

"The king of all publications issued for the young on either side of the Atlantic."—Southampton (England) Observer.

The third volume of this incomparable Magazine is now completed. With its eight hundred royal octavo pages, and its six hundred illustrations, its splendid serials, its shorter stories, poems, and sketches, etc., etc., in its beautiful binding of red and gold, it is the most splendid gift-book for boys and girls ever issued from the press. Price, $4; in full gilt, $5.

"St. Nicholas is full of the choicest things. The publication is, in every respect, the best of its kind. We have never yet seen a number that was not surprisingly good."—The Churchman, Hartford, Conn.

ST. NICHOLAS for 1877,

Which opens with November, 1876, begins

A short and very entertaining Serial from the French, "The Kingdom of the Greedy," a story adapted to the Thanksgiving season. Another serial, of absorbing interest to boys, entitled "HIS OWN MASTER," by J. T. Trowbridge, author of the "Jack Hazard Stories," begins in the Christmas Holiday number.

Besides serial stories, Christmas stories, lively sketches, poems and pictures for the holidays, and some astonishing illustrations of Oriental sports, with drawings by Siamese artists, the Christmas Holiday Number of St. Nicholas, superbly illustrated, contains a very interesting paper,

"THE BOYS OF MY BOYHOOD," by William Cullen Bryant;

"The Horse Hotel," a lively article, by Charles A. Barnard, splendidly illustrated, "The Clown in the Sky," by Richard A. Proctor, "A Christmas Play for Homes or Sunday Schools," by Dr. Eggleston, "The Peterkins' Christmas Tree," by Lucretia P. Hale, "Poetry and Carols of Winter," by Lucy Larcom, with pictures.

Do Not Fail to Buy ST. NICHOLAS for the Christmas Holidays. PRICE 25 cents.

During the year there will be interesting papers for boys, by William Cullen Bryant, John G. Whittier, Thomas Hughes, William Howitt, Dr. Holland, George MacDonald, Sanford B. Hunt, Frank R. Stockton, and others.

There will be stories, sketches, and poems, of special interest to girls, by Harriet Prescott Spofford, Susan Coolidge, Sarah Winter Kellogg, Elizabeth Stuart Phelps, Louisa Alcott, Lucretia P. Hale, Celia Thaxter, Mary Mapes Dodge, and many others. There will be also with maps, showing "The Stars of Each Month," which will be likely to surpass in interest any series on popular science recently given to the public.

AMUSEMENT AND INSTRUCTION, with FUN AND FROLIC, and WIT AND WISDOM, will be mingled as heretofore, and ST. NICHOLAS will continue to delight the young and give pleasure to the old.

THE LONDON LITERARY WORLD says

"There is no magazine for the young that can be said to equal this choice production of SCRIBNER'S press. All the articles, whether in prose or rhyme, are throbbing with vitality. . . . The literature and artistic illustrations are both superb."

The London Daily News says "We wish we could point out its equal in our own periodical literature."

GOOD NEWS FOR BOYS AND GIRLS.

To meet the demand for a cheaper ST. NICHOLAS Gift Book, the price of vols. I and II has been reduced to $3 each. The three volumes, in an elegant library case, are sold for $10 (in full gilt, $15), so that all may give their children a complete set. These volumes contain more attractive material than 2,000 dollars' worth of the ordinary children's books.

Subscription price, $3 a year. The three bound volumes and a subscription for this year, only $12. Subscribe with the nearest newsdealer, or send money in check, or P. O. money order, or in registered letter, to

GOV. CHAMBERLAIN'S ADD[RESS]

A Scathing Arraignment of [the] Administration Policy.

A Protest Against the Betray[al of] the Republican Party

[illegible]

I am to discuss ... It is one of the ... fortunes of our politics, that heretofore, as well as now, we have heard of Presidential policies. The expression discloses a dislocation of the proper relations between a President and the party which he represents. If you say the President should represent no party but the whole people, the answer is, he must represent the whole people through his party to principles approved and accepted by him as the representative of his political party. Political parties, in the sense in which we use the term, are the outgrowth of freedom. The experience of free peoples has devised no other effective mode of steadily authorizing and controlling public affairs. It is essential to the life of a party, to an honest or useful relation between a party and its leaders, that the latter should faithfully represent the purposes of the former. No man is ever trusted as a party leader upon any other basis. A President's policy ... the term is descriptive, is an anomaly and offense. It savors of bad faith. It has a native and historical odor of treachery and intrigue.

But, fellow-citizens, what is the President's Southern Policy?*

In point of physical or external fact it consists in withdrawing the military forces of the United States from the points in South Carolina and Louisiana where they had been previously stationed for the protection and support of the lawful Governments of those States.

In point of immediate, foreseen and intended consequence, it consists in the overthrow and destruction of those State Governments, and the substitution in their stead of certain other organizations called State Governments.

In point of actual present results, it consists in the abandonment of Southern Republicans, and especially the colored race, to the control and rule not only of the
